

With the Red Cross Here and Over There

Pay Increase for Nurses—

The American Red Cross Headquarters announces that nurses, members of the Army Nurse Corps, have had their pay increased ten dollars per month. This makes the minimum pay for a nurse in the United States sixty dollars a month, and seventy dollars for those in foreign service.

Junior Red Cross to Help—

The Surgeon General of the Army has placed an Army order with the Junior Red Cross to furnish orthopedic appliances for hospitals in this country and overseas. An allotment for 10,000 tables for use in hospital tents, convalescent homes, Red Cross Buildings, etc., has been placed in the Pacific Division and the boys are already at work on them.

Sells Rabbits for Red Cross—

Belgian Hares—a whole crate of them—constituted the first offering to the Santa Rosa Red Cross Shop which was organized and opened in record breaking time by Ira D. Pyle, Chairman. Pyle got his first story in the paper Wednesday morning and by 11 o'clock he had to apply to a commissary to feed his stock. The shop realized $143.70 from sales on the opening day, but this was not all from the Hares.

Red Cross Donations—

Since last reported Mohave County Chapter, American Red Cross has received the following donations:

August 29, Balance from Emerald Isle dance $2.00.
Donated by the Emerald Isle Boarding House, $14.35.
Camp Fire Girls donation for August, $21.35.

J. T. WATKINS,
Secretary.

Raising Red Cross Calves—

Cattlemen with large herds on the western range are preparing to reap a rich reward for the Red Cross the coming winter. Practically every range has a few heifers branded "ARC" and these are being fattened for the January Stock Show in Denver. After receiving the inevitable blue ribbons these heifers will probably be sold and resold many times. The former governor of Colorado, Elias M. Ammons, predicts that hundreds of thousands of dollars will be realized for the Red Cross through this movement. Many stockmen have announced their intention of keeping a few ARC branded calves for this purpose throughout the war period.

QUICK TRANSPORTING OF SUPPLIES—

A shipment of 800 cases of supplies made by the Red Cross Chapters in the Pacific Division were landed in Lohorn, Italy, March 1, at a time when sorely needed by that stricken people. This efficiency on the part of the Transportation Department has been highly commended.

Sea Contributes

Carmel-by-the-Sea has a resourceful Salvage and Shop Committee in its Red Cross Chapter. It not only cleans up the city in its search for available salvage to sell, but makes the old ocean give up its dead. Abalone shells and sea lavender finds ready sale among the tourists and the Red Cross is beneficiary.

Agreement Made With Y. M. C. A.—

An agreement has been entered into by the American Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. regarding a definite division of activities in Europe, so there will be no miss directed effort and the strength of each organization will be 100 per cent efficient.

Learn to Get Along Without Sugar

It has been done before. A hundred years ago refined sugar was unknown. Our ancestors used honey and you can use honey also. Besides there are syrups. The natural sugars of fruits will serve today as they did centuries ago. You will get all the sugar you need in this way. The Allies do it now. England, which before the war used more sugar than we did, has but two pounds per head a month now; France one and a half pounds, and Italy only one. Show yourself a patriotic American and use less than your ration. This is but a slight sacrifice as compared with all that the Allies are doing. Do it yourself.

The Allies are eatin'
Our wheat and our sweetenin'
And beatin' the Huns on the line.
The boys are all makin'
A meal on our bacon,
And soon they'll be takin' the Rhine.

M. E. Kimsey, Extension Entomologist of the Bureau of Entomology, U. S. Department of Agriculture has been spending some time the past week with County Agricultural Agent L. L. Laythe, in the Tucson alfalfa fields, assisting the farmers in putting poison baits for grasshoppers.

D. O. Lively, Director Agricultural Division 12th Federal Reserve District of San Francisco, has already sent a communication through the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture to all County Agricultural Agents urging them to begin at once through the Farm Bureaus to prepare to secure liberal subscriptions from farmers for the Fourth Liberty Loan, due in September.

The professional baseball season is about over by order of Secretary Baker. The abrupt closing of the game gives the tail-enders a chance to say that if the season had run its usual course they would have won the pennant.

A Proclamation Executive Department State of Arizona

STATE OF ARIZONA EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT A PROCLAMATION

The President of the United States, by proclamation, has fixed September 12, 1918 for the registration throughout the United States of all men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, inclusive, for military service, except those who have already registered and those who are not required under the law to do so.

Under the authority vested in the President, it has been ordered that State Headquarters, local boards and other officials of the State will hold themselves in readiness to proceed promptly with their work of registration on the date fixed.

Existing draft machinery will be used with such increased facilities and additional registrars as are required for this enrollment. Under the President's proclamation, the Governors of all states have been called upon to supervise this registration, and the Adjutant General will, under this proclamation, be the central administrative authority. All local Boards will have immediate direction and supervision within their respective jurisdiction. The actual registration will be made in the customary voting precincts within the jurisdiction of each board or in such other places as the local board having jurisdiction shall designate by public notice.

Rulings issued by the Provost Marshal General as to persons who are required under the Act are as follows:

All male persons who shall have attained their eighteenth birthday and shall not have attained their forty-sixth birthday on or before the day set for registration by the President must register. The only exceptions are:

(A) Persons, who, prior to the day set for registration by the President, have registered under the terms of the Act approved May 18, 1917, (which fixed the original age limits at 21 to 30, inclusive) or under the terms of the Public Resolution of Congress approved May 20, 1918, (providing for the registration since June 5, 1917, of those reaching the age of 21 years) whether called for public service or not; and

(B) Officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army; officers appointed and men of the forces drafted, under the provisions of the Act approved May 18, 1917; officers and enlisted men of the National Guard while in the service of the United States; and the officers of the Officers' Reserve Corps and enlisted men in the Enlisted Reserve Corps while in the service of the United States; and

(C) Officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps and officers and enlisted men of the Naval Reserve Force and Marine Corps service while in the service of the United States; and

(D) Diplomatic representatives, technical attaches of foreign embassies and legations, consuls general, consuls and consular agents of foreign countries residing in the United States.

Persons not subject to registration solely on account of being in the military or naval service of the United States becomes subject to registration and are required to register immediately upon leaving such military or naval service.

Citizens of the United States or persons who have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States who do not register on account of absence from the territorial limits of the United States are required to register within five days after their return to the United States.

The regulations then warn registrants and all other persons charged with a knowledge of the regulations, that ignorance of the provisions will not excuse them.

Those regulations have the force and effect of law, and all persons required by these regulations to be registered, and all persons who may claim any right or privilege in respect of any registrant, are charged with knowledge of the provisions hereof. Failure by any person required to be registered to perform any duty prescribed by these regulations is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for one year, and may result in the loss of valuable rights and privileges and an immediate induction into the military service.

Local police authorities in all parts of the country will operate with the Government in the enforcement of order on registration day. Regulations prescribed by the President and sent to draft officials of the various states, contain the following provisions:

On the day set for registration all Federal marshals, deputy marshals and investigating agents, and all police officers—state, county, township, municipal, and town—of whatever grade or class, shall hold themselves in readiness to render whatever assistance may be necessary in preserving order at places of registration and in assisting in bringing about a complete registration.

All marshals, deputy marshals, investigating agents, and police officers shall examine the registration lists and report without delay to the local boards the names of any persons known by them to have failed to register themselves when liable to registration; and it shall be the duty of local boards to report to the proper United States District Attorney all cases coming to their attention of persons who have failed to present themselves for registration as required by law.

Police officers may require any person subject to registration to exhibit his registration certificate.

In every case in which a duly designated officer or agent refuses or fails to act, the Governor, Adjutant General, or member of a local board will proceed at once to name another officer or agent for such duty, and will bring the fact of such refusal or failure, and the circumstances connected therewith, to the attention of the proper United States District Attorney, with a view to the institution of prosecution of such officer or agent, as provided in Section 6 of the Act approved May 18, 1917.

It is essential that the people of this State shall accord the fullest measure of co-operation in the carrying out of this order. Ignorance of the law excuses no one. All persons on the border line of the age of registration will be required to give adequate proof that they are outside of the age limit specified. The penalty for failure to register is one year's imprisonment, and no man can exonerate himself by the payment of a fine.

In accordance herewith, I, Geo. W. P. Hunt, Governor of Arizona, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by law, do hereby declare September 12, 1918, fixed by the President as REGISTRATION DAY throughout the United States, as a holiday in Arizona, and urge that all places of business be closed during the day in order that the full energies of every citizen may be united in seeing
